Charles E. Hughes to Speak at Lexington

Louisville, Ky., Aug. 25, 1916.

The announcement that Charles E. Hughes would come to Kentucky was greeted with enthusiasm throughout the State, and the biggest crowd that ever heard a public speaker in Kentucky will greet the Presidential candidate at Lexington September 6th at 1 o'clock P. M. Appreciating the public interest in the event, the railroads have agreed to give reduced rates for occasion. Rates and schedules will be on file at all railway stations within the next few days and local ticket agents will supply any information required.

Mr. Hughes is now making a whirlwind campaign in the West, where big crowds and great enthusiasm are attending his speakings. His firm stand for clean politics and strict economy in public business has appealed strongly to western people regardless of politics, and he comes to Kentucky already assured of the confidence of the country.

Inspection Tour

Over Boone Way.

An official Inspection Tour over Boone Way, from Bristol, Va.-Tenn., to the big road Convention to be held at Lexington September 5-8, will be conducted by Henry Roberts, Vice President at large of the Southern Appalachian Good Roads Association, and A. Gray Gilmer, of Bristol.

There will be a number of good speakers with the party who will address meetings enroute on the subject of BOONE WAY and good roads generally. Among the speakers may be mentioned Mr. Gilmer, Mayor George M. Warren, of Bristol, Va.; Hon. H. G. Peters, E. J. Prescott of Big Stone Gap, H. L. Scott, of Bluefield and others.

The party will leave Bristol at 6 A. M. Sept. 4, and arrive at Cumberland Gap, Tennessee, at 4:15, Milesboro 5:00, and will spend the night at Pineville. Except at Pineville, the meetings will be addressed from the speakers cars, so as to save time, and it is expected that large audiences will assemble at each town to hear from the party of Virginians.

On September 5th the party will hold meetings at Barbourville, Corbin, London, Livingston, Mt. Vernon, Crab Orchard and Stanford, and the schedule of these meetings will be announced next week.

It is especially desired that each town along Boone Way send one or more cars with the party to Lexington, where the good road enthusiasts from all over the Southern Appalachian Territory will gather to discuss matters relating to improved roads. A number of distinguished gentlemen will address the Convention, and all who attend will derive pleasure and acquire valuable information on the vital subject of good roads.

Washington Gossip

Washington, Aug. 21.—Robin Redbreast, hero of the story books and well known model in the bird kingdom, has been charged with leading a dual life. In the North, a sober, industrious, home-loving father, the allegation is that he spends his winters in the South in riotous living. Even in Georgia, where state prohibition prevails, he is reported as having been seen drunk in public. On coming north, however, it is said he always reforms.

Asked for an opinion in the case of Cock Robin, Secretary Pearson, of the National Association of Audubon Societies, recently in Washington, and authority on birds and their habits, said he had frequently seen robins in the South so intoxicated that they could scarcely flutter along the ground. This misdemeanor is reported to occur in the southern states where grows the China tree, also known as the "Pride of India," or "Persian Lilac."

Robins sometimes eat the berries of this tree which, having absorbed rainwater, form an alcoholic liquid which intoxicates birds, causing them to lose control of themselves and fall to the ground. Thus, many birds are captured and eaten by the negroes of the South.

It is said that, during the Civil War, soldiers gathered China berries and distilled from them an alcoholic beverage, which became quite popular. The people are said to be looking into the tree's alleged properties.

The China tree, scientists say, is very common along the lower gulf coast country, where it grows very rapidly and is a popular shade tree. Its abundant lilac-colored flowers appear early in the spring and the leaves are retained late into autumn, followed by clusters of yellow berries.

Notwithstanding Robin Redbreast's occasional sprees, the Audubon Societies give him a good general reputation in an attractively illustrated little bulletin which they are sending out from their New York offices to anyone who will send them a two cent stamp.

"I'VE HAD ENOUGH OF IT!"

FARMERS SIZE UP HUGHES AS "PRETTY GOOD FELLOW"

Fargo, N. D.—Charles E. Hughes campaigned for the first time among the sturdy farmers of the eastern part of North Dakota and left behind him the reputation of being a "pretty good fellow."

He was forced to undergo a critical scrutiny before the verdict was given.

Mr. Hughes preached the doctrines of government efficiency, Americanism, tariff as protection to the farmers and preparedness, and in each instance won applause, despite the fact that the farmers are not the strongest advocates of the last named issue.

They cheered for preparedness the loudest when Mr. Hughes told them that it meant not militarism, but ability to uphold national honor.

As they cheered for Mr. Hughes one broad shouldered old farmer said, "It's because there's something about him that makes you believe he's telling the truth."

ATTRACTS BUSINESS MEN.

Mr. Hughes has not tried to scare anybody, but has merely portrayed the errors of the present administration and set forth certain principles on which the affairs of the country should be managed in the future.

There is a pernicious logic in his portrayal, the culmination of which in the mind of the voter is expressed by the frequent remark:

"He is the kind of man we want to steer us through."

This has been said by many a business man. The qualities seen in Mr. Hughes are those a strong, sane mind, sincerity and a willingness to sacrifice life, physical or political, to the good of the country. Nor is there any question as to the quality of nerve to meet the emergencies of the four years beginning March 4, 1917.

THE RIGHTS OF AMERICAN CITIZENS DO NOT STOP AT THE COAST LINE.

"When I say that I am an American citizen I ought to say the proudest thing that any man can say in this world. But you can't have that pride of America—it's a cheap thing. It is not worthy of protection this wide world over. There is no man who could successfully present to an American community the platform that an American citizen's rights stop at the coast line and that beyond that American life is to be the prey of any marauder who chooses to take it."—From a Speech of Mr. Hughes in the West.

At the annual meeting of postmasters in Washington recently the first assistant postmaster general scolded the postal savings system. That must have been a bitter pill for Postmaster General Burleson, who sat on the same platform with his assistant. When the postal savings bill was passed Mr. Burleson, then a congressman from Texas, voted against it. Every vote cast against it was cast by a Democrat. Not one Democratic congress man voted for it. Yet President Wilson says the Republican party has not had a new idea in thirty years. Whose idea was it?

It was the instinct of a lawyer for Hughes to support his damning charges against Wilson by calling Wilson's own secretary of state as a witness to prove them.

The Democrats are finding out that pork comes home to root out their standing.

The men and women who prefer a man who does things to a man who writes notes about them will vote for Hughes. Government by correspondence takes too long to get anywhere, but government by deeds is always on the job.

Those who are concerned to know what Mr. Hughes would have done had he been in Mr. Wilson's place may rest assured he would not have done as Mr. Wilson has. And that is answer enough.

Mr. Hughes is not only going direct to the public, but the public is going direct to him. A genuine American fifty-fifty!

If those Democratic notifiers put off their notifying much longer they may find Mr. Wilson in no mood to accept.

HOME OF AVERAGE MAN.

"But America is not simply a land for the man of special talent or of distinguished aptitude. This is the home of the average man, the ordinary man who is doing his best, whatever his talent or aptitude, and in our large industrial occupations, where thousands are gathered together in one service, we want a recognition of human brotherhood in providing for the welfare of those who make the wealth of this great country."

"We want workingmen to be safeguarded from every injury that can be prevented. We want the health of the workingmen looked after; every means provided which continues to the proper standpoint of living; every means provided for proper recreation; appropriate means for education, for vocational training. In short, the workingman who is on the job and expects to continue in that job ought to feel that he is doing something worth while for a community that appreciates it and gives him a fair chance to lead a happy and decent life."

—From Mr. Hughes' Speech at Detroit.

Postmaster General Burleson is too foxy a politician to adopt for his department the McAuley rule forbidding treasury department employees participating in politics. Mr. Burleson realizes that postmasters are entitled to some exercise for the money.

There are no strings or mental reservations to the public pledges of administrative reform given by Charles E. Hughes. His record as governor of New York guarantees the fulfillment of every promise.

Democrats are now convinced that Charles Evans Hughes is a warm pro-position.

It is gratifying, indeed, to find that Mr. Wilson still stands on the suffrage question where he stood at the beginning of his administration. He has changed on about everything else.

Mr. Hughes says there should be more dealing in Mexican affairs. May be so, but we had enough of the firm of Wilson, Carranza & Co.

According to the week's latest work of fiction, the Democratic campaign book, the wage earners of the country received during the Wilson administration $3,000,000,000 more than the received under Taft. And all it cost them to keep something in the dinner bill was $6,000,000,000 more.

Taxes 1916

LONG PAST DUE

TO THE TAX PAYERS OF KNOX COUNTY:

Please call at my office and settle your taxes, I do not wish to press you, but I am being pushed; and it is necessary for me to collect soon. Various enterprises and obligations of the County need the money, I can not meet these unless I collect.

Judge Tinsley Sustained. Good Roads Convention.

Judge A. M. J. Cochran in a 100 folio opinion sustains Judge W. W. Tinsley in his opinion in the Continental Coal Corporation which is in Bankruptcy, in Bell county. The question submitted to Judge Tinsley was, "The principal place of business of the corporation," Kentucky or Tennessee. After all the proof had been taken Judge Tinsley decided in a 10 folio opinion that it was in Kentucky.

Judge Cochran in offering Judge Tinsley used this language: "The Referee has handled this question so well in his opinion, that I might have contented myself with merely adopting his reasoning, but I have deemed it best to present it in my own way, thinking that possibly I might be able to do so, in such a way, as to reconcile the Defendants to the inevitable."

This case has been appealed to the United States Court of Appeals, at Cincinnati, Ohio. Keep your eye on this opinion and see if Judge Tinsley is not right.

Rev. John B. Hudson Preaches at Paris.

Rev. J. B. Hudson, of Victoria, Texas, will preach for the Presbyterian congregation at the Court House at 10:45 o'clock Sunday morning, and at the union services at the Episcopal church in the evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Mr. Hudson has been preaching for the past month for the Presbyterian congregation, and to-morrow he will deliver his last sermon. He is one of the most interesting ministers the Paris people have listened to in a long time, and it is regretted that he is not to remain longer.

There are five brothers in the Hudson family, and all five of them have been newspaper men and three are ministers. They are natives of Barbourville, this State. Their mother is a frequent attendant at the State Press Association and we have known her for years. She is one of the most interesting ladies we have ever met. Paris Democrat.

QUESTION CRAZE SEIZES THE G.O.P.

Democratic WORLD Long Had Monopoly of This Idiocy, but Opposite Party Is Infected.

STRING OF INTERROGATIONS TO FEASE WILSON IDOLATERS

Questionnaire No. 1—Will All the Wilson Notes Be at His Notification? How Did Free Trade Hit Your Line of Business Just Before the Battles of San Juan?—When the War Began?—When the War Began?—Die Will You Weep at the Future?

The question habit grows. You may ask a question of any one. Why should the dear old public escape? Here are a few from the New York Sun for the man in the street:

Do you approve of the river and harbors bill?

Do you want four years more of watchful waiting, with the national guardsmen undergoing military training in tropical climate in midsummer?

Do you hold that the duty of the United States is to serve humanity and let its own citizens be killed and outraged?

Do you feel proud of notes with nothing behind them?

What do you think of the Vera Cruz adventure?

Would you like to have been an American soldier at Carrizal?

Do you love Carranza?

Do you believe in a financial regime conducted largely in the interest of one section of the country?

Do you desire to cut the Philippines loose in order that Japan may gobble them?

Do you want four more years of Daniels?

Do you approve of wrecking the diplomatic service to provide jobs for deserving Democrats?

Are you in favor of inflation?

Do you believe in preparedness for a flood of cheap European wares as soon as peace comes?

Have you noticed the significant increase of imports in the past year, despite the war?

How did free trade hit your line of business before August, 1914?

And your friends?

Were you all cheered up by the Underwood tariff bill?

Do you think the doubling of the income tax is fair while millions' worth of competitive imports come in free? Where are you going to be when the war babies die and business slips back to the cold, hard normal basis? Can you conceive of any possible good to you or to the country from another presidential term like the present one?

Will you perpetuate sectionalism, greed, ignorance, stupidity—general ineptitude in congress?

DENIES ASSAULTING MR. HUGHES

Percy Mackaye Writes He Never Saw "Authors' Letter" With His Name Appended.

Percy Mackaye, playwright, whose name appeared as one of the signers of the so-called "authors' letter" published in the newspapers last week, knew nothing about the matter until after publication, according to a statement given out yesterday at Republican national headquarters. The letter attacked Charles E. Hughes as "non-constructive" and propounded ten questions for Mr. Hughes to answer. In a letter to Mr. Hughes Mr. Mackaye said:

"My attention has just been called to an open letter addressed to you, printed in the New York Herald of August 2, signed by a number of professional writers, among whom my name is included. I beg to send you this word, to say that I did not sign the letter and never saw or heard of the letter until it was shown to me in print."

It was stated at Republican headquarters that neither Mr. Hughes nor any of his staff had seen the letter except as it appeared in the newspaper.

POINTS FROM HUGHES' SPEECHES

Reckless extravagance of the Democrats is an insult to the American people.

Deserving Democrats! Deserving in heaven's name or what?

We have a splendid system of government, on paper, but we want that system vitalized.

The pork barrel bill brings a blush of shame to the cheeks of every American.

I am here because I have a vision of what America needs.

An idle American will always feel uncomfortable.

America will not hold her own by high sounding phrases.

Are we not a nation great enough to have sufficient foresight to protect our borders in a sensible fashion by means of sensible preparedness?

If we state our rights in a firm and determined manner it should carry conviction. There should be no vacillation in connection with that assertion.

Prince Albert gives smokers such delight, because —its flavor is so different and so delightfully good;

—it can't bite your tongue;
—it can't parch your throat;
—you can smoke it as long and as hard as you like without any comeback but real tobacco happiness!

On the reverse side of every Prince Albert package you will read:

"PROCESS PATENTED
JULY 30th, 1907"

That means to you a lot of tobacco enjoyment. Prince Albert has always been sold without coupons or premiums. We prefer to give quality!

PRINCE ALBERT

in goodness and in pipe satisfaction is all we or its enthusiastic friends ever claimed for it!

It answers every smoke desire you or any other man ever had! It is so cool and fragrant and appealing to your smokeappetite that you will get chummy with it in a mighty short time!

Will you invest 5c or 10c to prove out our say-so on the national joy smoke?

Preaching at M. E. Church Sunday

Rev. Clarence Swearinger will fill the pulpit next Sunday morning and evening. Mr. Swearinger is a young man just out of Union College where he graduated last June. He has been engaged in some very interesting meetings in some of the towns in the northern part of the State. All are invited to come out and hear this young Evangelist, he will interest you.

Opening Of High School

The Public High School will open on September 4th with the following very competent corps of teachers:

Prof. H. M. Oldfield, Principal
Prof. L. H. Mills, Prof. W. C. Faulkner, Miss Ora Barton, Miss Estie Parker, Miss Zella Polly, and Miss Wille Prater.

The public is invited to the opening exercises of the school, and their support is solicited.

W. C. BLACK, Chairman.

We call your attention to the announcement of Newton Jackson of Cannon, for the office of Assessor of Knox County subject to the action of the Republican party. Mr. Jackson is a true blue Republican, and has been all his life. His father before him and all his father's brothers were soldiers in the late civil war and were with Sherman on his famous march from Atlanta to the sea. Newton's father was too young to be a soldier, and was permitted to go along with his four older brothers. His mother was a Miss Jones, the daughter of Harvey Jones, and a sister of S. A. D. and N. B. Jones who most every one know.

Mr. Jackson is a deserving young man, he is qualified to fill this position; he being a cripple, having lost one of his legs when a mere boy, he lay on his bed and read, qualifying himself for the battles of life. He places his claims in the hands of his friends and is confident that he will win.

--Resolve that the institute meet in Bell county next year at Pineville or Middlesboro whichever

This is the reverse side of the Prince Albert tiny red tin. Read this "Patented Process" message to you and realize what it means in making Prince Albert so much to your liking.

Washington, Aug. 25.—The Republican Publicity Association, through its President, Hon. Jonathan Bourne, Jr., today gave out the following statement at its Washington Headquarters:

If the country votes at the presidential election this year as it voted at the Congressional election of 1914, Hughes will carry California, Colorado, Connecticut, Delaware, Idaho, Illinois, Iowa, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Nevada, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New Mexico, New York, North Dakota, Oregon, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, South Dakota, Utah, Vermont, Washington, West Virginia, Wisconsin and Wyoming.

"These States have 286 votes in the electoral college, a majority of which is only 266.

"In each of these States, two years ago, the Republican Congressional ticket received a clear plurality of votes. In these States combined the Republican candidates for Congress received 4,076,157 votes, while the Democratic candidates for Congress received only 3,132,558 votes—the total Republican plurality being 942,589.

"In each of these States, in 1914, there was an organized Progressive campaign—except in Nevada, North Dakota, Utah and Wisconsin, although in Utah there was a Fusion ticket running in opposition to the Republicans. The total Progressive vote in these States was 746,341; and the combined Republican-Progressive plurality over the Democrats was 1,688,930.

"Two years ago there were five states—Indiana, Kansas, Maine, Nebraska, and Ohio—which are fairly to be classed as normally Republican but where the Democratic Congressional ticket received a plurality of votes ranging from a beggarly 365 in Maine to an impressive 41,752 in Indiana. But the Progressive vote in each of these five states was far in excess of the difference between the Republican and Democratic totals and ranged from 3,111 in Nebraska to 90,040 in Indiana. In Kansas the Progressive vote in 1914 amounted to 74,441; in Ohio it was 47,981; and in Maine it was 17,985.

"These five states will cast 63 votes in the electoral college. How will they vote this year?

Hopeful Democratic statisticians estimate the division of the former Progressive vote upon different proportions—in each instance, however, giving the long end of it to the Republicans and in no instance claiming that more than 30 per cent of the Bull Moose will support Wilson. Upon this extreme hypothesis, let us examine the vote of the five states where a Democratic plurality was found in the Congressional elections of 1914.

"The Republican vote of Indiana in 1914 was 233,140, the Progressives casting 90,040 and the Democrats 275,802. Dividing the Bull Moose strength on the basis of seventy and thirty per cent, respectively, to the Republicans and the Democrats, the vote of Indiana this year should be: Republicans and Democrats, the vote of Indiana this year should be: Republican, 296,162; Democratic, 302,901. The margin is too small for comfort on either side; and Indiana must remain as fighting territory until the votes are counted. The Progressives—aided, it is said, by Democratic funds—are maintaining an organization in that state; but competent observers believe that from 85 to 90 per cent of the Moose will vote for Hughes and that the number who will support Wilson are negligible. Upon this basis, Indiana should go for Hughes and Fairbanks by nearly 30,000.

"The seventy-thirty division applied to Kansas would give that state to the Republicans by the following figures: Republican 240,215; Democratic, 218,162.

"In Maine the result would be: Republican, 72,888; Democratic, 66,071.

"In Nebraska the figures should show: Republican, 113,376; Democratic, 113,820. This is another hair-line of demarcation—but there is no Bull Moose ticket in Nebraska this year; and while the contest will be a hard one, the indications are that Hughes will carry the state.

"The same division of the Progressive vote in Ohio would produce figures for 1916 in this wise: Republican, 511,088; Democratic, 498,653.

"It is, therefore, a fair assumption that, in addition to retaining the states which disclosed a clear Republican plurality in 1914 and which assures a majority of the electoral college—the Republican ticket will this year gain Kansas, Maine and Ohio without question and secure for Hughes and Fairbanks a total of 326 out of 514 votes in the electoral college—with more than a fighting chance to add the 23 votes of Indiana and Nebraska to that number, making 349, or a majority of 167.

"Hughes will not be a minority President.

Dr. Ben L. Bruner, ex-Secy. of State will make a Republican speech in Barbourville at 12:30 Monday Aug. 28. He is one of the greatest campaigners in Ky. Let us give him a good hearing.

School News.

The following teachers have organized Moon Light Schools: C. A. Morris, Arlie Williams, Ed Hampton and Mrs. J. W. Hughes. These teachers claim that the interest taken by the citizens as a whole is far beyond their expectation.

The citizens of these districts are making a strong fight to be able to say that all voters in their districts can read and write. So why not you join hands with your neighbor and say that you are going to live in a school district where all adults can read and write.

Are you not willing to help your teacher to make good the aim "No Illiteracy in Your School District?"

Teachers who expect to compete for a prize must mail to the County Superintendent their complete enrollment of illiterates, on or before September the tenth, W. W. EVANS, Supt.

Liver Trouble

"I am bothered with liver trouble about twice a year," writes Joe Dingman, Webster City, Iowa. "I have pains in my side and back and an awful soreness in my stomach. I heard of Chamberlain's Tablets and tried them. By the time I had used half a bottle of them I was feeling fine and had no signs of pain." Obtainable everywhere.

Tedders Items.

It is still raining in this part of the country.

Several of our people are working on the C. & M. R. R. this week.

Mrs. Ethel Woollum and Nellie Parrott are visiting relatives in London this week.

Rev. Pickard and wife, of Lily, and daughter, Mrs. Mat Hale, of Danton, visited relatives here Saturday and Sunday.

Tom Burkhardt is looking awfully bad of late. It may be because all the girls have quit him. Cheer up! Tom, cheer up!

Mr. Johnny Taylor seems to be all the ladies' fancy, now, on Big Richland.

Miss Lucy Taylor is having some trouble with a boil.

Andrew Cobb has been sleeping so late these mornings that he came up to Taylor Tedders' Monday morning and borrowed an alarm clock to wake him in time to get to work before dinner time.

Mr. Willie More visited at Mr. Burkhardt's Sunday evening.

The Best Laxative

To keep the bowels regular the best Laxative is outdoor exercise. Drink a full glass of water half an hour before breakfast and eat an abundance of fruit and vegetables, also establish a regular habit and be sure that your bowels move once each day. When a medicine is needed take Chamberlain's Tablets. They are pleasant to take and mild and gentle in effect. Obtainable everywhere.

"About two years ago I had a severe attack of diarrhoea which lasted over a week," writes W. C. Jones, Buford, N. D. "I became so weak that I could not stand upright. A druggist recommended Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. The first dose relieved me and within two days I was as well as ever." Many druggist recommend this remedy because they know that it is reliable. Obtainable everywhere.

Just The Thing For Diarrhoea

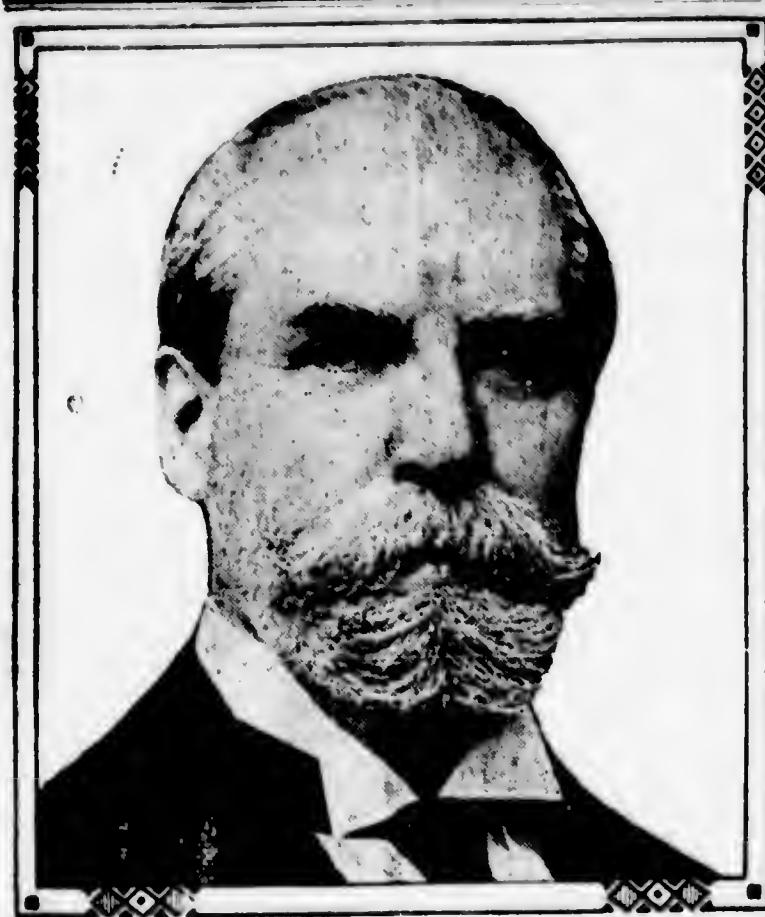

I have been asked by many friends to enter the race for the office of County Court Clerk, and have given the matter proper consideration and have come to the conclusion that I will offer myself as a candidate for that office subject to the action of the Republican Primary to be held August 4th, 1917.

This is quite a long way off, but I thought that I might say that I will at the proper time enter the race, and will make an active campaign when the time is right for a field campaign.

Respt. Yours,

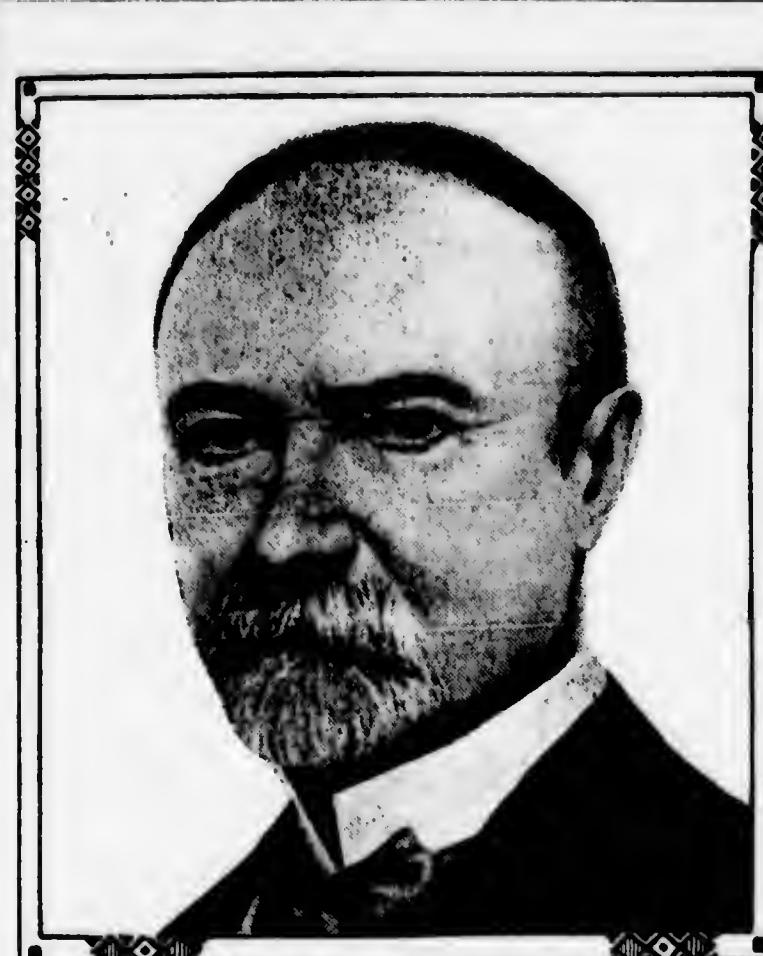

W. H. McDonald.

CHARLES EVANS HUGHES.

CHARLES WARREN FAIRBANKS.

DETROIT'S IMPRESSIONS OF A MAN.

Governor Hughes' visit to Detroit opened the presidential campaign of 1916, and if we may forecast the events that are to follow by the omens of Monday we would prognosticate an intensely warm, vivid and humbly interesting period in the next few months.

Setting aside the auspices of meteorological conditions in this preview of the future—although they are approved by numerous professional augurs and by a host of commoners as well—we base this prophecy on the characteristics of the candidate whose too brief stay with us has been enjoyed by all with whom he came into contact.

The misguided individuals who have been expecting Charles E. Hughes would prove to be a cold proposition and therefore easy to beat are in for a shock that will make them think they have been hit by an uninsulated trolley wire. There is nothing cold about Mr. Hughes, Detroit has learned. He is about as intensely human a piece of humanity as ever captured the hearts of a crowd, and the more people in the United States he meets between now and November the more votes will be cast for him. As a campaigner he is a revelation. He likes his fellow beings, and they like him because they see he likes them.

And what his personality begins his remarkable powers of intellect and utterance finish. He drives his points home with tremendous force. What he says sticks. There are thousands of Americans today who can retell every step in the arguments he made eight years ago on the Bryan trust policy, yet in 1908 Mr. Hughes was not especially a prominent figure and there was no particular reason why his address more than others should have remained clearly in the memory except the gift of the man to send his own thoughts so deep into the brains of others. They are closer in his own mind first, undoubtedly. He knows precisely what he wants to say because he has reasoned it out before he speaks it out. Probably that has something to do with the ease with which he conveys his meaning. But it is a very rare quality he possesses in his ability to master subjects so thoroughly as to make the most abstruse simple to himself and his hearers. It is a quality eminently desirable in a political candidate. It is infinitely more to be desired in the president of a great country like the United States.

Detroit's impression of Charles E. Hughes is all favorable. The thousands of people who have studied him at close range are convinced that if he is elected president next November he will be a great president, one of the greatest this nation has known, worthy to stand in history with George Washington and Abraham Lincoln, a custodian of the republic's fate to whom that fate may confidently be intrusted. If that conviction is shared by the people of other states whom he is still to meet the outcome of his swing around the great American circle cannot fail to be propitious for him—Detroit Free Press.

Headed in Every Direction.
Mr. Wilson says his mind is progressive, but those who try to follow his progress can never tell the direction it is taking. It is just as likely to be progressing backward as forward—Hartford Courant.

Women are for Mr. Hughes because the great human values in this country are still to be welded politically into its national life.—Frances A. Keller.

President Wilson is now anxious to have it thought that there was no withdrawal of troops from Mexico at the request of Carranza. Why not go one better and declare that we never had any troops in Mexico to withdraw?

It was stated that the president would work on his acceptance speech during his week end trip on the Mayflower. Among the salt billows there should be some inspiration for ringing sentiments on naval preparedness.

MANANA.

Manana, which is Mexican for "watchful waiting," is the Democratic keynote in the campaign. The Wilson drive is to begin "some time" after Sept. 1, but no definite engagements have been made. It is announced, for him to commence making political speeches. He has tentative engagements to make some western visits about the middle of September, but nothing positive. Plans are being formulated for carrying on a campaign to capture the western vote of the country, but who will make the speeches on this phase of the controversy has not been determined. It has been expected that Mr. Bryan would speak in the Maine campaign, but it is now believed he cannot do so, but will make some speeches later. And so it goes. Watchful waiting will prevail, while in the meantime Mr. Hughes is carrying on a positive campaign and arousing the entire western country.

"I don't care if I am elected president, what becomes of my personal political fortunes. I propose that we shall have no more, if I can stop it, of these 'kiss me and I'll kiss you' appropriations in Congress."—From Mr. Hughes' Speech at Chicago.

WOMEN SHOULD BE FOR CHARLES E. HUGHES, SAYS ROOSEVELT.

Mr. Hughes has unequivocally taken the right position, and as regards all other positions he, and not his opponent, is entitled to the support of both men and women, and therefore the women in the enfranchised states who do not in this election support him forfeit the right to say they have done their utmost for their sisters in the non-enfranchised states."—From a Letter of Theodore Roosevelt to Miss Alice Carpenter.

MR. HUGHES ANSWERS.

Those Who Clamored For His Views Are Hearing Them.

Those friends of Democracy who clamored so loudly for Mr. Hughes' opinions upon current issues while he still held the high office of Justice of the supreme court are now fully answered by the private citizen, who surrendered his judicial position to accede to the wishes of a majority of the people as expressed through their instructions to their delegates to the Republican national convention.

Mr. Hughes has not disappointed those who have reposed confidence in his character and judgment. In his speech of acceptance he has clearly set forth the vital issues upon which the Republican party proposes to conduct the campaign this fall. On the platform he is telling the nation wherein the present administration has been at fault and what is necessary to be done to restore the United States to the place of respect and honor to which it is entitled in the eyes of the world.

HIGH LIGHTS OF HUGHES' ADDRESS IN CHICAGO.

"As I was 100 per cent judge I became 100 per cent candidate." "The most serious charge against the present administration is putting incompetent men into important positions." "I propose that when a man goes to represent the American people he shall be looked upon with respect and esteem." "Nobody has the right to pay political debts with the good name and the honor of the United States." "I propose to have no more 'kiss me and I'll kiss you' appropriations in Congress."

Those Canadian sentries who searched the car of Mr. Hughes for explosives missed the bombs he has ready to drop into the Democratic camp—Philadelphia Public Ledger.

The New York Sun says that Daniels is the issue, but our opinion is that the Democrats will, in company with several other so called issues, duck this one. Daniels is too difficult a proposition to defend.

Instead of getting those Danish islands at a bargain, "marked down from $25,000,000 to $5,000,000," we're going to pay a twenty million bonus on a $5,000,000 value.

"WORDS OR DEEDS?"
"If anything in this campaign is real it is that we are now facing the question whether we want words or whether we want deeds; whether we want that which is written and spoken, or whether we want American action in the interests of the American people, worthy of the American name, maintaining the American honor and buttressing the prosperity of the United States."—From Mr. Hughes' Speech at Chicago.

PREPARE FOR THIS.

"When we contemplate industrial and commercial conditions we see that we are living in a fool's paradise. The temporary prosperity to which our opponents point has been created by the abnormal conditions incident to the war. With the end of the war there will be the new conditions determined by a new Europe. Millions of men in the trenches will then return to work. The energies of each of the now belligerent nations, highly trained, will then be turned to production."—Charles E. Hughes.

FLASHES FROM HUGHES' DETROIT TALKS.

AMERICAN RIGHTS.

"No one could successfully present to an American audience that an American citizen's rights stopped with the coast line."

"There is not a particle of militarism in my composition, but there is Americanism in its place, and if elected I am going to see that American rights are protected."

LABOR.

"The workingman is not asking anything he should not have. All he wants is a square deal."

"No such thing as prosperity exists for just one class in America, unless it exists for all."

"The Republican party does not stand for the prosperity produced by the war, but for a prosperity produced by sound American policies, and these are what we propose to have."

PREPAREDNESS.

"Do not let us get this country into a low patriotic plane so that we are content with disesteem, with the scoff of the world."

"I am an American citizen, ought to be the proudest title in the world."

CIVIL SERVICE.

"We had in the coast and geodetic survey an eminent scientist. He was displaced to make room for an excellent stock breeder."

"It is the most unworthy thing an administration can do to take public business and pay political debts with it."

NO PROTECTIVE MEASURE FROM DEMOCRATIC CONGRESS.

"You couldn't get a protective measure out of a Democratic congress sectionally organized any more than you could get a revival meeting out of a disorderly house."—From Mr. Hughes' Speech at Chicago.

BURSTING A BUBBLE.

The Democrats who sought a criticism from Dr. Charles W. Eliot of Mr. Hughes' acceptance of the presidential nomination got one, but not the kind they wanted. Dr. Eliot was heartless. Instead of helping the Democrats keep the supreme court bubble in the air he pricked it with a pin when in his letter he said of Mr. Hughes' action:

"Most Americans will think that, having tried the life of a governor and the life of a justice of the supreme court, he had a right to give effect to his preference for political service."

Mr. Lanigan is credited with the belief that the case against Great Britain on account of the blockade is so weak that it ought not to be pressed. What, then, did Mr. Polk mean when he called the attention of the British government, "in the gravest terms," to "the many serious consequences" to be apprehended if it were not withdrawn?

"Torturing Headaches—don't suffer—Stop them!"

I began taking Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills and they always gave me instant relief no matter what the pain. Then I used Dr. Miles' Nervine regularly and was soon in perfect health again."
